Lesson 5: Peacemakers at Work

We saw peacemakers at work in the story "Let Us Work Together". Here are some problems to give you a chance at problem solving. When you are through, see what solutions your class- mates have come up with.

Are they similar to yours?

Before you try to solve the problem, define the problem

Problem: _____

_____

_____

Advice to Marie: _____

_____

_____

PROBLEM:

Marie saw Julie-Ann take an orange and a banana from Christian's lunch box.

Later, Christian started to make a fuss when he went to eat his lunch and could not find the fruits. He accused Peter of stealing his lunch.

Marie could not decide whether to say anything or not.

What advice would you give her?

Problem: _____

_____

_____

Advice: _____

_____

_____

PROBLEM:

Mrs. Cranford sent her son Mark to the shop to buy some groceries he lost the change as he played on the way home

Mrs. Cranford is very angry because now there's not enough money for mark and his sister's lunch for the rest of the week the Cranfords live 1 1/2 miles from the primary school.

YOUR CHALLENGE!

Role - play a situation where a conflict occurs on the playing field. Suggest ways for resolving the conflict.

As a peacemaker I learned

_____

_____

Copyright Pals Jamaica